Upcoming Meetings

May Meeting In Review:

Wednesday, June 3, 2015

Social Time 5:15 to 6:30

Meeting starts promptly at 6:30

MCL Cafeteria, 2151 Wabash Ave

Program:

Class Experience at Marc Adams School of Woodworking, Presenter: Ric Thompson

Ric will discuss his experience at a recently completed weekend class at Marc Adams school on inlays and decorative borders.

Special Notes: Members are encouraged to bring in items or projects to share at our meetings during the Show N Tell session. Show us what you've been working on lately!

Members are also encouraged to donate items to be raffled off during our 50/50 drawing.

If you've read an interesting article or some other woodworking related source, bring the topic to one of our meetings to share. Your participation is needed.

And don't forget to call any members you haven't seen at our meetings lately to ask if they need a ride to our next one. Member attendance and participation is what keeps this club alive and interesting!

The meeting highlights:

- There were three entries for the CAW brochure display contest
 - * The contest winner was Clay Crocker
 - * Excellent entries were also submitted by Norm Koerner and Dan Schmoker
 - * The makers of all three entries were thanked for their effort since their entries will now be used to display our brochures at different locations around town
- Evening's program presented by Ric Thompson
 - * First part of the program was how to use layered finishing techniques to simulate fumed oak
 - * Use of a water-based dye in combination with sealers and gel stain was presented
 - * Several members offered other methods they have used to simulate similar results; good lively discussion
 - * Second part of program was various methods and products Ric used to finish the edges and surface of the leather strips to be used to upholster the project (seating bench)
 - * Bench was not available for display since it is still at Weeks Upholstery waiting to be finished; should be available at our next meeting
- The next open shop events were announced:
 - * August 1, 9A-11A, Ralph Winch's saw mill tour and demonstration

SAVE THE DATE FOR THE CLUB'S PICNIC: JULY 12, 2015

Mark you calendars today! More details later.

DR. ROLAND FOLSE RECOGNIZED AGAIN!

Once again, CAW would like to recognize one of our long-time members Dr. Roland Folse for another of his accomplishments. Memorial Hospital announced recently that the Surgical Skills Center in the new facility will be named for Dr. Roland Folse in recognition of his contributions to surgery, teaching and research. Roland served as surgical department chair for 29 years during which he received six consecutive Excellence in Teaching awards from the SIU surgical department, was a 2015 recipient of the Order of Lincoln and has published more than 80 articles. Congratulations, Roland!

STILL LOOKING FOR MISSING LIBRARY VIDEOS

We are still trying to locate the following videos missing from our library. We need everyone to check their pile of stuff to see if you have one of these and bring it to the next meeting. If you can't make the meeting, call Ric Thompson (217-415-5568) and he will arrange to pick them up from you. We would really like to bring our library up-to-date and available to all of us. Thanks for your help!

Editor's Note:

I guess someone needs to fire the newsletter editor. Last month I failed completely to get a newsletter sent out. Sorry about that. Thanks, again, for your patience. By the way, anybody interested in the job? Anybody? Anybody? ;-)
